A public sale will be held Saturday, Sept. 2, at 10 o'clock, at Maucker & Sennett's barn on Seventeenth street, of three mares, 6, 7 and 9 years old; a colt, 4 months old; a phaeton, two good work wagons, carriage, two sets work harness, one set single harness and three pairs of horse blankets. H. C. Harris is to be the auctioneer.

THE ARGUS received yesterday an evidence of the thoughtlessness of some one in mailing letters entrusted at the camp grounds for prompt delivery, in the shape of two letters, both of which had apparently been mailed Saturday night at Rock Island, whereas one should have been received at this office Friday and the other Saturday. The instance shows how little some people regard the importance of the prompt receipt at a newspaper office of matter intended for publication.

The "Tornado".

The dissecting-room scene in Lincoln J. Carter's new play, "The Tornado," which will be seen at Harper's theatre tomorrow night is one of the most attractive scenes of the performance, perfect in its detail. The action of the story during the scene is the very essence of quiet and refined intensity. At its close, as the curtain slowly falls, the young husband and surgeon, alone with his great joy, a storm of appreciative and sympathetic applause invariably comes from the audience. It was this feature of the new play which was awaited by Mr. Carter's admirers, with a possible doubt as to his ability to keep it free from gruesome shades, but the reception accorded the scene at the first production settled beyond a doubt the complete triumph of the feature.

When a Rattlesnake Feels Surprised.

The pig treats the snake with respect, not to say insolence—nothing, ophidian or otherwise, can fascinate a pig. If your back garden is infested with rattlesnakes, you should keep pigs. The pig dances contemptuously on the rattlesnake and eats him with much relish, rattles and all. The last emotion of the rattlesnake is intense astonishment, and astonishment is natural in the circumstances. A respectable and experienced rattlesnake, many years established in business, has been accustomed to spread panic everywhere within ear and eye shot. Everything capable of motion has started off at the faintest rustle of his rattles, and his view of animal life from those expressionless eyes has invariably been a back view and a rapidly diminishing one.

After a lifelong experience of this sort, to be unceremoniously rushed upon by a common pig, to be treated as so much swill, to be jumped upon, to be flouted and snouted, and finally to be made a snack of—this causes a feeling of very natural and painful surprise in the rattlesnake. But a rattlesnake is only surprised in this way once, and he is said to improve the pork.—Arthur Morrison in Strand Magazine.

The Color of the Hat.

Centuries ago the color of a hat or cap had its significance. Cardinals first began to wear red hats in 1233. In Italy for ages members of the Hebrew race were known by the yellow cap they wore, it being mandatory for them to wear them.—Philadelphia Ledger.

The Value of Coins.

HEADACHE, SLEEPLESSNESS, NERVOUS PROSTRATION.

Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

Gentlemen: I take pleasure in informing you of the very beneficial results which have followed the use of Dr. Miles' Nervine. For a year I was subject to a distressing pain at the base of the brain and upper portion of the spinal cord. I lost flesh and was greatly troubled with sleeplessness.

My case had been so obstinate that I had no confidence in the efficacy of any medicine. Yet as a last resort I consented to give it a trial. Much to my surprise, I experienced marked benefit; my sleeplessness disappeared; my headache was removed; my spirits and general health greatly improved.

I soon gained twenty pounds. ALL THIS OCCURRED AFTER LEARNING AND USING DR. MILES' NERVINE. My wife is taking the Nervine with the best of results.

BALD HEADS!

What is the condition of yours? Is your hair dry, harsh, brittle? Does it split at the ends? Has it a lifeless appearance? Does it fall out when combed or brushed? Is it full of dandruff? Does your scalp itch? Is it dry or in a heated condition? If these are some of your symptoms be warned in time or you will become bald.

Skookum Root Hair Grower

is what you need. Its production is not an accident, but the result of scientific research. Knowledge of the diseases of the hair and scalp led to the discovery of how to treat them. "Skookum" contains neither minerals nor oils. It is not a dye, but a delightfully cooling and refreshing Tonic. By stimulating the follicles, it stops falling hair, cures dandruff and grows hair on bald heads.

Keep the scalp clean, healthy, and free from irritating eruptions, by the use of Skookum Skin Soap. It destroys parasitic insects, which feed on and destroy the hair.

If your druggist cannot supply you send direct to us, and we will forward prepaid, on receipt of price. Grower, $1.00 per bottle; 6 for $5.00. Soap, 50c. per jar; 6 for $3.00.
